Washington PRIMA
Proudly Sponsored by:

The Chapter Board of Directors is pleased to announce a scholarship opportunity for the PRIMA National Conference June 6-9, 2010. Details on the PRIMA Conference can be found on the main page of www.primacentral.org. PRIMA Washington will pay (or reimburse) for registration, airfare, and hotel expenses, up to $2,500. Personal expenses such as, room service and movies, will not be covered.

This scholarship is available for any public entity or governmental PRIMA Washington member with 2010 chapter dues paid. Applicants shall express their interest by replying through email. The applicant's level of participation in the local Chapter is one element of the scholarship criteria; however, new members are encouraged to apply. Applications will be reviewed by the Board of Directors and the applicant responses to all of the criteria (see below) will be used to select the recipient. The scholarship is only applicable to the June 2010 PRIMA Conference and cannot be applied to other current or future training or conferences. Each applicant should clearly express the following information in their emailed response:

- Your level of participation with PRIMA Washington in the past three years
- If a new member, summary statement of what you hope to get from and contributions you can make to PRIMA Washington
- Listing of all completed current professional designations and year of completion
- Listing of professional designations/education in progress and how being achieved
- Describe a professional career highlight from the past three years
- List all risk management related conferences, seminars, etc, attended in the last 2 years
- Comment on your entities budget for travel and training for this year and next year
- Submit approval documentation from manager indicating scholarship can be used this year
- Prepare a short summary to be presented at the September 16th 2010 PRIMA Washington meeting that recaps highlights of the conference and how you see it benefiting your career

Applicants-Please return your interest (and/or questions) in the scholarship in an email (or in a Word Document Attachment) to: semry@lwsd.org by April 23rd, 2010.

Thanks for your interest!

Scott Emry, President
Washington PRIMA
